Experience

El Duende magazine and La Más Chula agency - Graphic Designer.

November 2018 - Present

In November 2018 I joined the design team of El Duende (an iconic Madrid cultural magazine) and the agency La Más Chula. I am assigned a series of editorial, audiovisual and web projects in which I carry out the artistic direction and design implementation.

Estudio Óscar Mariné - Trainee Designer.

April 2016 - February 2018

I developed my first professional internship with Óscar Mariné in his studio. For two years I took part in various corporate identity design projects, re-publishing of old works in museums, layout of catalogues and other editorial pieces, as well as monitoring the studio's clients. I was also part of the production team at the ÓSCAR MARINÉ BIG BANG exhibition at the University of Navarra Museum in Pamplona.

ESNE Communication Team - Trainee Designer.

May 2017 - July 2017

Most of the work consisted of supporting the internal and external communication and promotion of the university as a designer developing online and offline. Apart from the promotional elements, together with the design team we developed the annual report of the university and it's trimestral magazine.

Awards and collaborations

Ronald McDonald House Charities.

January - March 2016 and January - March 2017.

Contributed to the design of a vinyl and a mural (both large) to decorate the headquarters of this NGO in Madrid.

Allianz Global Assistance.

September 2016.

Designed the Winning proposal (1st prize) of the competition for the communication of a promotional action at the point of sale.

Foundation for the Assistance of the Intellectually Disabled.

November - December 2015.

Assisted in the design of a calendar for the campaign 'I love me, I like me'.
